

Albany Singh

Albany Singh is 19 years old. She is a Senior at Utah Valley University (UVU) majoring in accounting with a minor in political science. Being the daughter of a Punjabi immigrant, she is passionate about sustainable mountain development, which sparked her interest in Utah International Mountain Forum where she is now the Vice president of UVU's Rotaract club under this cohort. As Vice President, she has participated and hosted UVU World Polio Day events, UIMF's collaboration with both the UN and UVU's Center for Global Engagement on International Mountain Day celebrations, and helped District Rotary with Operation Santa which provided Christmas to over 100 kids in title 1 schools.