

Student Engagement and Intercultural Understanding

Utah Valley University

What is Engaged Learning?

“An orientation to teaching and learning that promotes collaboration, problem-solving, and applied projects of benefit to local, national, or international communities.”

What is Engaged Learning?

Prepares students for post-graduate experience

Connects students with meaningful and socially transformative projects.

Connections between local and global contexts

Core Principles

Collaborative Partnerships

Participatory Learning

Professional Development Opportunities

Civic & Global Activity

Applied Problem Solving

Global Engagement as a Core Value

JVU is a multicultural community that values cultural literacy and actively supports learning that crosses cultural and political boundaries. We engage locally, regionally, nationally, and globally in order to fulfill our mission.”

Global/Intercultural Graduation Requirement

The purpose of the Global/Intercultural requirement is to assist students to become better prepared to understand and participate in the global and diverse cultural interdependencies that characterize our world.

Resources at Utah Valley University

International Center

International Affairs & Diplomacy

Volunteer & Service Learning

Peace and Justice Studies Program

Global Spotlight Central Asia (2012-13)

Utah Women in Higher Education Project

Dr. Baktybek Abdrisaev

Hydrology Project in Nepal

r. Steven Emerman, Associate Professor of Earth Science

r. Michael Bunds, Associate Professor of Earth Science

racy Kemp, Geology major

Joseph Kade Carlson, Geology major

